B. Train between Fontainebleau and Paris-Gare de Lyon

B1. Trains from Paris-Gare de Lyon to Fontainebleau/Avon station

(see Section A for information on how to get to Gare de Lyon).

At Gare de Lyon, go to the “Ile de France/Banlieue” counter to buy your ticket to 'Fontainebleau/Avon' or buy it in designated machines (make sure your credit card is listed!). Train tickets can be purchased individually (approx. 9.00€).

The final destination of your train can be one of the following: Montereau, Montargis, Sens or Laroche-Migennes. Look for one of these destinations on the information displayed on the Departures board. You can ask also double check with the person at the front desk to confirm which final destination will be displayed for your specific departure.

The journey takes about 45 minutes from Paris-Gare de Lyon to Fontainebleau/Avon.

Trains leave from either Hall 1 or Hall 2 in “Grandes Lignes”
Gare de Lyon contains two groups of platforms: Hall 1 (tracks A-N) and Hall 2 (tracks 5-23).

The screen at the head of the railway track announces all the stops. Make sure your train stops in Fontainebleau/Avon Station and make sure to sit in the coach closest to the front of the train.

For more information on local train times, please go to the Transilien website and type the name of your departure (ex: Paris Gare de Lyon) and arrival stations (ex: Fontainebleau/Avon).

B2. Travel between the Fontainebleau/Avon train station and downtown Fontainebleau

- City Bus Line 1 – Take line 1, heading to “Les Lilas”. The bus stop “Gare Routière” is located at the back of the Fontainebleau/Avon train station. If you are staying in a downtown hotel, you should get off at Château de Fontainebleau. If you are staying at Hotel Mercure, you should get off at Sous-Préfecture. Use the above link to view the Bus Timetable.
- Taxi - It is unlikely that you will find a free taxi at the train station. Therefore, you should book a taxi in advance (See the Taxi section below for booking and fare information).
- Walking - It will take about 30 minutes to walk between the Fontainebleau/Avon train station and downtown Fontainebleau (about 42 minutes to Hotel Mercure).
